

We designed an addition to an existing office/ classroom building, that includes a worship space and a multi-purpose space that may be used for a narthex, overflow seating, classroom, music warm up, or fellowship hall. Operable walls break up this space to facilitate these uses. The original building was renovated inside and out to include new uses and blend it's exterior appearance to match that of the new building.

