

This new church facility was designed for a tight and heavily sloping site. We designed a flexible building that included a multi-purpose sanctuary, classrooms, restrooms and kitchen.

Unfortunately, the property was later needed for the widening of I-405 and the building was razed.

bpharchitects

Lake Washington Christian, Kirkland