

We designed additions that included an enclosed circulation system to tie two existing separate buildings together and included a new two-story Christian Education classroom structure.

