

Building Exterior

Interior View of Sanctuary

A 1,400-seat sanctuary was added to the existing church building. It is a warm and delightful space enhanced by sculptural forms that optimize acoustical and lighting systems. The structure has a daylight basement level with classroom and nursery space.

The building exterior finish is brick veneer and stucco. The choir uses stacking bleachers and a curtain track at the front platform gives programming flexibility.

Interior View of Sanctuary from Balcony

